1.) As assembled students and faculty members at the University of Virginia, we feel that our First Amendment rights to protest government policy are threatened by the injunction sought by the University and filed by the Honorable Lyttleton Waddell, Judge of the Circuit Court, on May 5, 1970. In order to protect these First Amendment rights and to guarentee University autonomy, we demand the University, as complainant, to revoke said injunction. 1.	( )	( )	( )
2.) That in connection with maintaining the safety of all members of the University community during the next several days, we demand that University President, Edgar Shannon, prohibit University police from carrying firearms, and the University not allow any outside law enforcement officers on its property- FBI, CIA, National Guard, Va.
